2. The Counterterrorism Center represents a unique organizational structure in the Agency. We would like you and [redacted] the other panelist to talk with our participants about how, and why the Counterterrorism Center came into existence, how it is currently operating, and what implications it has for training in the future. We suggest that each of you take about 30 minutes to share your ideas and leave 15 minutes at the end for a joint question and answer period. An overhead projector is available for your use.
